

Participate in Spring 2007 Environmental Leadership Training with the Chicago Conservation Corps (C3)!

Learn why it's important to conserve water, then organize and lead a rain barrel bonanza.

Learn how composting reduces waste going to landfills, then lead a compost workshop.

Learn how compact fluorescent bulbs (CFLs) save energy, then lead a demo and distribution.

LEARN: You will learn from community and environmental leaders about urban environmental challenges and opportunities for change. LEAD: Then take action and lead an environmental service project in your community with C3 support and resources.

topics include:
water • land
air • energy
community
and more!
