

The BUGs are coming!

The BUGs are coming!

BUGs are coming to the Garfield Park Conservatory!!

(Building Urban GardenS Classes)

City Gardeners can learn to garden with nature – ecologically, inexpensively and creatively – in this exciting eight week, hands-on course taught by experts in the field. You will learn how to create a design for your garden that is filled with plants and structures that are good for you and good for the Earth.

8 Classes for $160.00 (includes a year's membership in Openlands)

1/29- Planning and Designing your Ecological/Organic Garden

2/5 - Using Composting to Build Healthy Soil – the Basis for a Healthy Garden

2/12 - Your Beautiful, Edible Garden: Vegetables, Herbs & Annual Flowers

2/19 - Perennials- Plant them ONCE!

2/26 –Trees & Shrubs - The Natural Infrastructure in your Garden

3/5 - Insects and Weeds: A Place for Everything & Everything in its Place

3/12 - Pulling it all Together and Putting it in your Garden – Containers, Hardscape & Installation

3/19 - Design Roundtable; Year-round Gardening; Volunteering in community gardens for your Badge; Final Exam & Potluck Celebration!

Saturdays, January 29 thru March 19, 2011, 9:30 am -12:30 pm at the Garfield Park Conservatory, 300 North Central Park Ave., (3600 W.)
& the Chicago Dept. of Environment, 445 N. Sacramento Blvd.

Questions? Class registration? Confirm dates & Classes? Email: jsamuels@openlands.org or call 312/863-6256

openlands

conserving nature for life

BUILDING URBAN GARDENS

